

Anita Colburn

February 16, 1939 - April 26, 2019

Anita Enid (Vaughn) Colburn, of Dallas, Texas, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, April 26, 2019, at the age of 80. She was born February 16, 1939, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Raymond and Marion (Williams) Vaughn. Anita didn't know a stranger, and because of her captivating engagement she connected with so many. She was exceptionally loving, caring, optimistic and committed to her family. Her life was centered around her family and the Church. Anita was a faithful member of The Church in Dallas.

Anita had fond memories of her childhood in Baltimore and at an early age moved to Buffalo, New York where she attended school and started her family. She moved to Dallas, Texas in 1978 where she established her home for the rest of her life. Her three sons and their families all call the Dallas area home, which Anita cherished for the quality time with the family.

Anita is survived by her husband: Roger Colburn; sons: Donald R. Foley and wife Cindy, William Foley and wife Amy, and Joshua Colburn and wife Lacy; grandchildren: Brendan Foley, Liam Foley, Christine Foley, Donald W. Foley, and Caleb Colburn; brother: Robert Vaughn of Oswego, New York; and sister: Ardelle Jarvis of Santa Monica, California. She was preceded in death by her parents; and her brother: Daniel Vaughn.

A private family service is being held on Monday, April 29, 2019, and a memorial service is being planned for a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Anita's memory to the Dallas & Northeast Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.

“ Dear Roger, Don, Bill and Joshua;
I first met Mrs Colburn in 1974 when I went to high school with Bill. She was always concerned that we make the right decisions and we did well with our lives. Well, we still made a lot of poor decisions, but we came out good. So rest easy, Anita. You did your job well.
