“ I was there when God delivered you from His hands to ours. And I fell instantly in love with your beautiful little face. You gave me a joy I've never felt before. Now God has called you back home and you are flying high with the angels. I will miss you always and never stop loving you. My heart is broken into a million pieces but I know I will see you again. Rest well, my first grandson, until we meet again. Your Mimi loves you so very much!

“ I remember at his graduation, he, Roy and Aaron hit it off so good. It was crazy. Just like they had known each other forever. Just one more time that proved love is more than blood.

“ I can't believe I even have to write something like this. I can't believe you passed away before you got to live your life fully. There's so much you didn't get to do and so much you didn't get to experience. You made the whole world light up with your amazing laugh. I smile when I remember. I miss your wise words because you always knew exactly what to say when I needed your help. I miss your heart because not only were you selfless, but you were generous, kind, and loving to all of those around you. You were, and still are, so loved by many. Even though you are not here anymore, you will always be in my heart. You were such a special person and I hope you still know that.
Rip lil bro. Like you always tell me before we hang up, or say goodbye. For the last time. I HATE YOU.
