June 4, 1948 - June 17, 2019

Cynthia Kay Braden, age 71 of Sachse, TX, passed away June 17, 2019. She was born June 4, 1948, in Sulphur Springs, TX, to Jimmie Scott and Jacqueline Prescott Wesson. Kay started her day with a coffee, and in her recent years ended it on the back porch enjoying the breeze with a Dr Pepper. In her younger days, she enjoyed dancing and living every day to the fullest. Most that knew her would refer to her as a little “spit fire”. She looked forward to her day trips to the casino with her dear friend, Janet Condit. She was an avid fan of many television shows, and enjoyed keeping up with everyone she did not see regularly via Facebook.

Kay is survived by her daughters: Tabatha Thedford and husband Bruce, Kim McClurg and husband Dennis all of Sachse, TX, and Alisa Caldwell and husband Kevin of Heath, TX; sisters: Terri Wesson, Jane Stewart, and Kelly Allen all of Sulphur Springs, TX; grandchildren: Ashley Moore and husband Gary of Royse City, TX, Schyler Nichols of North Richland Hills, TX, Amanda McClurg of Dallas, TX, and Chase McClurg of Sachse; great-grandchildren: Keegan and Kooper Moore. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Geary, and brother-in-law James Stewart.

“ Kay was the kindest and most precious sister-in-law that I could ever imagine. Her laugh and personality won everyone over. She will be missed by so many, but she is in Heaven with Jesus and other loved ones that have gone ahead. Love you and thank you for the love you showed to Grandma Jean all these years.
