“ I've know David since elementary school in Canadian. He had grit. We played football, ran track, and had many classes together. During college we kept up in A&M-TU game with a standing $10 bet. Reunited a few years ago as we ran across each other at a school board convention in Austin and have kept up. David was passionate about his community service and it was obvious he did it for the love of others. He adored his wife and new daughter. David lived his life to serve others and made the world a better place. Good job.

“ I have known David my whole life. I love that he was part of my life as a child growing up in Canadian and that he has been a part of my life as an adult in Allen. He has served as a source of light to me in my life. I will forever remember his loyalty, his laugh, the way his smile always reached his eyes, and the way he freely gave love and acceptance to those around him. He was a gentle soul and a true gift to this world.

“ It breaks my heart to hear about David's passing. Even though I haven't seen David since high school, I have a thousand memories of him since he was a '91 graduate and I was '92. I never remember seeing David without a smile on his face. he was always joking and laughing. I wasn't even in classes with him, but when you heard his laugh coming down the hallway, you knew who's laugh it was. He would get so high-strung on game days and just be a mad man trying to pump you up every second.....even when I would punt the ball.....lol! He was such a great teammate. Maybe not the best-receiving hands, but he made that up with Heart. If he had my talent and size, he would have made it to the NFL! My heart goes out to all his family. He was a great guy and friend. It was a blessing to have known him and he will be truly missed.

“ The Noll family will always hold a very dear place in our hearts. We are beyond blessed by the friendship God gave us when I met Mandy and David. The world was a better place because of David Noll. The way he gave sacrificially to his family, his community, and everyone around him is an inspiration to us all! David was passionate about anything he did! He was enthusiastic about making a difference and being a light! We were blessed to know him and have him pour into our family! He will be missed, but I know he will continue to have an impact through his memories and his legacy. Mandy and Emma are in our prayers daily!

“ What does a person say to losing their big brother. It's a given he no doubt was loved by my wife Kelli, niece Emily, nephew Trenton and myself. Sports were our biggest connection in life from high school to now. I will miss him for this most and enjoyed every moment we spent together. Thanksgiving holiday watching football games and all us brothers playing football in the front yard. The older we got the more we all realized watching football was probably safer for all of us but we continued the tradition.

I know my bro is in a better place now, a place he strived in life so hard to prepare himself for. Our hearts go out to Mandy and little Emma. We love you guys and together with our families, we will get through this together. That's what David would want most for us and we love all of you.

“ We loved David and had the really good fortune of watching him grow his life. His Mother and husband Randy Lovell lived next door to my father-in-law Bill Byrd. He was a regular most Sundays to watch football games with Bill. A most impressive young man and you just knew he would be a genuine influence in so many people's lives. My wife Maureen and I just cannot believe he is not with us anymore. What a loss. We will continually pray for Mandy and his family. Thanks be to God for such a wonderful young man.

“ I just found out about this happening. Can't hardly believe it has happened to David. One thing I do believe is that he has now met Jesus face to face and is now beyond any kind of pain. There is only the peace of God in his eternal life before him. Come, Lord Jesus.

“ I have only known David for the last 4-5 years. I got to know him the most through two different avenues. First, he joined the Rotary Club of Allen Sunrise, where we engaged in many conversations about our community, Allen, Texas, and service projects or activities that our club was involved in. We talked about many local issues that our community was facing and dealing with. David always had a unique perspective that I always valued. He was like the moral compass of our community. I found his opinions to be spot on. We also frequently saw each other in the outdoors on our local hike and bike trails, me on foot, and him on his bicycle. We would stop and chat about whatever the topic of the day was and then wish each other the best and went our separate ways. He was always steady and true to whatever he was involved in. He was committed and all in when it came to Allen and the Allen ISD. He genuinely wanted the best for each child that came through the doors of the Allen ISD as if each one was his own. And you could not find a person more respectful and kind than this man. His absence will leave a hole in each of our lives for a very long time. My prayer and hope would be that if you ever met David, that you might let his light shine through you in some way, to carry on his good in the world. I feel torn by his loss of life and offer up my condolences to his wife Mandy and their daughter. May God be with you and comfort you both, as well as your relatives, during this time of mourning.
