

Erin Shubel

October 24, 1975 - August 9, 2020

Erin Shubel passed away unexpectedly August 9, 2020, at her home in Rowlett, TX, at the age of 44. She was born October 24, 1975, in Bad Axe, MI, to Irwin Edward and Lynn Marie (Zinger) Shubel. Erin worked in medical research at UT Southwestern. She is remembered by her family and many friends as a brilliant and truly unique individual who was loved and will be dearly missed.

Erin is survived by her son, Charlie Shubel of Rowlett, TX; parents, Robert and Lynn McDaniel of Rowlett, TX; brother, Kyle Shubel and wife Angie of Marshfield, MO; sister, Jennifer McDaniel of Royse City, TX; nephews, Kenny and Cline Herren; and many, many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

It is Erin's wish that she be cremated, buried in a biodegradable urn, and have a tree planted in her memory. She did not want a viewing or a wake, but that we have a party where everyone could tell a funny Erin story (and we all know at least one) and remember her with love and laughter. That will have to wait until after the pandemic. In lieu of flowers, she would love to have trees planted in her memory, or if that's not possible, donations made to the SPCA in her honor.

“ I just heard. I'm so sorry. Erin and I were good friends in high school. She was an absolutely beautiful woman inside and out. I will never forget her unique sense of humor, the way she laughed and her beautiful smile. She will be missed...may God rest your soul Erin

“ Erin

Today is your birthday and you are deeply missed. You made my introduction to the NeuroRepair lab memorable. Thank you for the greatest happy hours, and the best Romulan Ale ever!!

There are those who momentarily cross your path in life but have the deepest impact - you are one of those beautiful souls.

Take care my friend!

“ I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. We were close friends at Lake Highlands HS and I've always wanted to reconnect with Erin, but always thought I had more time. Recently I told the story about Erin getting onstage at the Morrissey concert and getting part of his gold shirt a not even realizing she wasn't with us anymore. I am immensely sad right now... she had a huge impact on my life. I have a memory box from my early life somewhere, and I'll dig it out and share some pictures of her when I find them. Although, it was always hard to get a good picture of Erin because she would hide her beautiful face.

“ It is such a sad thing, imagining a world without Erin. She worked with me at UT Southwestern since 2010. Erin was a great scientist, lab manager, and most importantly, a wonderful friend. She always made me smile, and I will never forget her Halloween costumes. In particular, the My Fair Lady complete with an outrageous cockney accent and basket of flowers. I couldn't find a picture, but I have no doubt everyone can imagine that! Here are a few pictures I did find.

A tree shall be planted, Erin. And you will never be forgotten. Miss you, Ann

“ Thank you for your kind words, Ann, and for sharing great pictures of Erin. It's hard to imagine the reality of not ever having new stories from or about Erin, but while she was here, she had a brightness to her...a very unique take on this world. She will never be forgotten, and thanks so much for planting a tree in her honor.

Sincerely,

Her mom & Dad, Lynn & Bob McDaniel, and Charlie
