“ BOOGIEMAN, my friend, you are now with our CREATOR. THANK YOU for being my friend since the 1980s. We have been together playing basketball, drinking, hanging out with other friends like Bong Baptista, Mike, Mel, Macven, Jeff, Martin, and others.
May our GOOD LORD welcome you in His kingdom.
I will miss you BOOGIEMAN but OUR MEMORIES will ALWAYS be remembered.
May you now rest in peace.
LOVE you, Brother.

“ Boogie, I really don't know him much but I know his mom and dad, but I see him always if we have big events in our community. He helped a lot. You may Rest In Peace. Thank you for all your help to our community. Because of your good heart, and helping hands. The community appreciates and is thankful that you were a part of our group. Praying for you and your family. RIP.

“ I worked with Boogie for a short time, but it was simple to realize he was one of the good guys -- always putting others before himself. See you later buddy.

“ To a very special cousin with a very generous heart, may you find peace in the Lord’s loving arms. Thank you for the fun memories we shared while growing up together. Those are priceless moments that we all share; we never get tired of reminiscing and re-telling, always with matching cracks of laughter after every story when we all gather together with your siblings. Manang Monday Loves you Bogs. Rest in Peace now that you are home to Our Father.

“ Boogie, you are always special in our hearts; and we so admire the warm, funny, genuine person you are. We find it difficult to express in words what only our heart can feel, so we’re just going to say we love you. Goodbye for now until we meet again Kuya Dave, ate Amy & family

“ It was a long time ago but I remember Boogie always laughing and always wanting to make those around him laugh. He saw the good side of people even though we weren’t cool or hip like him, with his Ray Ban sunglasses. He was a people person and knew how to enjoy with the crowd I think when he was young, but like his younger brother Boyet who I hung out with during my days in Dallas, he was a good basketball player with his tall frame and long arms. He, too, was a family guy and was very close and loyal to his family and friends, always lending a hand when needed. He respected me even though I was raised conservatively and so I respected him back. I laughed with him and I accepted him for who he was and I enjoyed my time with him even though it was brief. I think he genuinely appreciated people for who they were. It’s only now that I came to find out that he enjoyed fishing, since we never got a chance to do it together. Some of my best memories were fishing with Boyet and Uncle Fel at Lake Ray Hubbard. I still enjoy it very much today, when I have the time. I hope and pray that he is truly enjoying himself up there in heaven and having a great party, fishing and catching plenty of fish, enjoying the grand reunion and laughing wholeheartedly with our loved ones who have gone ahead. These memories are for you, my friend Boogie. - Deonie Rivalal
