Jasso; daughters: Anjelica Nicole Martinez and husband Roman, Jennifer Alexandra Jasso and fiancé Matthew Burkemper, and Erika Jeanette Jasso; grandchild: Chrissy Jo Martinez; parents: Gregorio and Beatriz Jasso; brother: Gregorio Jasso and wife Lupita; sister: Aracely Jasso Moreno; nephews: Mario, Jorge, Carlos, Diego, Hugo and Giovani; niece: Sofia. He was preceded in death by his sister Grisleda Jasso.

“ Although I am unable to be with the Jasso family tonight or tomorrow my heart and prayers are with the entire family. Gilbert was such a great friend to me for 30 years and I loved him and all of the Jasso family. I know me and Gilbert shared our love for the Cowboys but we had many other memories and things we had in common but most of all we could always talk to each other about anything. I especially want to send my deepest condolences to Mr. and Mrs. Jasso who have their hearts broken again with the loss of another child. Chrissy Jo and Gilbert were two very special people that I was very lucky to have in my life and I will always love them both very much.. Also, condolences to Aracely and Greg, and I pray for both of you. Gilbert will turn anyone in heaven that was not a Cowboy fan to love them for sure. My heart will always be with you all and Maria and the girls know I am here if anyone ever needs anything....

Love always,

“ Tio Gilberto was one of the most outgoing and strongest people I’ve ever had in my life. He always treated me more of a son than a nephew, along with my younger brothers. He would always tell me how proud of me he was for completing college and living on my own. I’ll forever remember my Tio for the kind, loving, and caring man that he was and he’ll be dearly missed and always loved and honored.

“ Uncle Gilbert, you always had a way of making anyone feel a part of the family. One of my favorite memories was at Nikki’s wedding... Jorge and I were still dating and he was still too shy to dance! So there I was tapping my foot eager to dance quietly watching everyone on the dance floor! To my surprise, you invited me to dance! And to a Selena song of course! It was such a great memory and a testament to how you made me feel accepted in the family. You could make anyone feel at home and comfortable to be themselves. Over the years you’ve told me the best stories about my husband and most recently, this past summer as y’all bonded over fixing the truck- I listened and laughed at our conversations as all three of us hung out a few weekends in a row in our garage.. jorge with his cold ones, you and your special “cold ones” and my pregnant self always eating an ice cream! I will always cherish these memories.... thank you for being an Uncle to me as well. You will forever be missed.

“ Such a fun guy! I only got to work with him a few times but in that time he shared so many fun stories about cars, hunting, and the Dallas Cowboys. He no longer suffers earthly pain but I know all his friends and family missing his humor. Prayers for comfort and peace for the family. Great picture of him.

Que encuentren consuelo en la memoria de su sonrisa y en los momentos a su lado Le pido a Dios les de consuelo.. Nos alegra mucho en haberlo conocido

“ There has never been a more enthusiastic Dallas Cowboys fan. When Gilbert and my sister Dana watched those games together, they could both rattle the rafters with their cheers and shouts. Gilbert and his family were a great addition to our Kennedy family and we will miss Gilbert very much. His love of life, family, the outdoors, and the Cowboys will never be matched.
