

Haven Isaiah Sharkey

November 11, 2018 - January 12, 2019

Haven Isaiah Sharkey was born on November 11, 2018, with a rare genetic disorder called Nonketotic Hyperglycinemia and a life expectancy of less than a week. Given his unique circumstances, his parents knew they wanted to choose a name of significance. They spent a lot of time researching the meanings behind different names. The first thing that came to their mind when thinking about his story was that while he was their child, he was ultimately a child of God. They knew that God knew him before he was formed and set him apart before he was born. Based on this, they decided to use the initials HIS to symbolize that he belongs to God and they were just blessed to have the opportunity to be his parents. Based on the initials, they chose the name Haven Isaiah because although he was expected to live a short life, they knew he would make an impact on this world and then would get to spend eternity in heaven safe from the dangers and pain of this world. It also turned out that there was a city in Texas called Highland Haven, so he was able to carry on the naming tradition of his older brothers, Tyler and Austin.

Haven – Place of safety, shelter, refuge

Isaiah – God is salvation

Although most people referred to him as Haven, his big brother Tyler had a special name for him – “Bubby.”

Haven was a fighter! He fought to outlive the life expectancy the doctors anticipated and he fought to stay with his precious family through the holidays. Tyler, Mom, and Dad were able to love on him in the comfort of their home for two months! He was able to have as normal of a life as possible while he was here and was able to experience life as a “Sharkey,” which included numerous visits to Chick Fil-A, riding in the “Cool Jeep,” watching his big brother play baseball and learn to ride a bicycle, meeting Santa, and attending several family events for the holidays. This is a special time that his family will always treasure in their hearts.

On Saturday, January 12, 2019, while surrounded by his loving parents in the comfort of their home, Haven Isaiah "Bubby" Sharkey was called Home. He was greeted in Heaven by his "Bubba," Austin Kyle Sharkey, and his Grandpa, Jeff Sharkey, is holding both of our precious little angels tightly in his loving arms.

Haven's life will continue to be remembered by his mother and father: Lacey and Logan Sharkey; his big brother: Tyler Sharkey; his grandparents: Lisa and John McQuarie and Shelley and Jeff Hansell; his aunts: Jaclyn Hansell and Allie Winters; his uncle: Colton Winters; his cousin:, Cooper Winters; his great grandparents: Barbara and Mike Stanford, Nancy and Donny Johnson, and Gail Flores; the family dogs: Nike and Harley; and the "fishies:" Hulk Mask, Aggie and Baby Jesus; and a host of loving relatives and close family friends.

A celebration of Haven's life will be held 2:00pm Wednesday, January 16, 2019, at Reflections at Rest Haven Funeral Home-Rockwall Location with Pastor Mason Randall officiating.
