“ His smile, love, laughter, and silly jokes will be truly missed. Uncle James did enjoy life to the fullest. Much love and comfort to his entire family through these difficult days ahead. We have to know that he is rejoicing now with no more suffering. Much love always the Cash Family. Donnie, Terri (Smith), Bethany, Adam, and Sara Thurman.

“ I will always remember James' kind & gentle ways. On an extended visit to our home, we enjoyed James & Nancy so much. We laughed a lot as we shared memories of when we were younger. James & I would take our coffee out on the patio while the rest of the world was asleep. We discussed, at length, about our Lord & Savior. James loved the Lord & wanted his loved ones to understand the depth of that love. Wanted them to know that He loved them. We prayed together during those early mornings. During his illness, we prayed together. There is no doubt in my heart that he was welcomed into his heavenly home with open arms. He loved his wife, Nancy, & his family. We'll see you soon James. That great reunion in the heavens. love you cuz, Sherl
