

Kim Tyler

July 25, 1957 - November 23, 2017

Kim Rowena (Hervey) Tyler, age 60, of Rockwall, TX, passed away November 23, 2017. She was born July 25, 1957, in Dallas, TX, to Carter Paul and Rubye Lee (Keller) Hervey. Kim earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology at Prairie View A&M, where she met Alvin Tyler. Upon graduation from Prairie View A&M, they started their family, three beautiful daughters: Nadia, Erika and Alana.

Kim was a career driven woman and took pride in having a career in property management for 27 years. While she worked this field, she managed to touch and change many lives for the better. There were many people that had a story to tell about Kim and they all had the same theme, "she told me I could change my life," and "she helped me believe in myself so I could become a better person." Kim Tyler did this for an innumerable amount of individuals. She was a healer.

Kim was a private woman. It was her discretion that kept many from knowing her battle with cancer. Those who were able to get close enough to know her, know that she was an artist and loved to write poetry. She was also a self-proclaimed hippie. Kim loved listening to music from the late 60s through the 80s, when songs were written to make a statement about the times.

Kim was creative, fiery and passionate about life. She was a truth teller and truth seeker. Kim Tyler encompassed honesty, integrity and loved to help others. She also left us all one final lesson in life: when you have to fight, fight hard. Yet sometimes our biggest and greatest fight is to let go and surrender to God's will. And in the end Kim did this with grace and peace.

Kim's life will continue to be remembered and celebrated by her loving husband of 38 years: Alvin Tyler; her daughters: Nadia Tyler-Aust and husband Marcus, Erika Tyler and Alana Tyler-Wostrel and husband David; grandchildren: Samadhi, Noah, Ajna and Solomon Aust and London Johnson-White; mother: Rubye Hervey; and siblings: Morris Wayne Hervey, Kent Hervey, Carl Hervey and Carlos Hervey; as well as a host of relatives and close friends. Kim was greeted above by her father: Carter Paul Hervey.

A celebration of life will be held 1:00pm Friday, December 8, 2017, at Rest Haven Funeral Home – Rockwall Chapel. Inurnment will follow at Rest Haven Memorial Park. The family will receive friends at the funeral home prior to the service beginning at 12:00pm.

“ Kim was an amazing woman! I worked with her for a short time at a property in Dallas and we had a bond like no other... she mentored me (and sometimes it wasn't nice by any means). She told it EXACTLY like it was... but tried so hard to make me understand what I couldn't see or didn't understand. Eventually, I opened my eyes and saw so clear one day after she and I had a very LOUD discussion over our Taco Cabana breakfast tacos, and I listened! I later was able to tell her all about it and I was able to thank her for always pushing me to use my brain, and not be stupid! Lol Kim will be missed so much and she is so loved by my husband and I (part of the reason we are together)... Thank you, Kim, for all the good and bad and ugly times we shared!!!

“ My mom and I use to sit outside on the porch and drink iced tea while watching London play in the backyard. She also hosted wonderful events on her property such as Easter egg hunts for all the children. Another memory is when I surprised her in visiting Texas and she hugged me and started crying. I love you and I miss you.
