“ Wow 1 full year without you it seems like just yesterday I heard the news and I still cry and laugh thinking back on all the good times we spent together on holidays and when you would come over to Ma's. Almost everyday on the way to school I would look out the window of the bus and I would stare at your grave and I would tear up well I love you Grandma Lou

“ Yesterday was the first birthday without my grandma Lou. I miss you and I know you are watching over me. I love you Grandma Lou.

“ Gosh, a month already? I miss you, your voice, your knock on my door, your laugh when the kids did something silly, your beautiful smile when the kids opened a gift from you, the long talks on my way home from work, the good conversation and hot dogs at Cosco's diner. I miss everything about you. I know that for me to want you back is a selfish, fleshly want because you are in the holy of holy places, more than we can imagine here on earth. I know your smile is bigger and your laugh even deeper than it has ever been before. Enjoy the comfort of your Heavenly Father and we will wait patiently here until we get to see your beautiful face again.

I love you Grandma.

“ I am so sad about my special friend, Lou. Such great memories. We were friends for over 30 years. She loved life and she loved her family. I had the pleasure of meeting part of her family.

Lou, Kathy Adams and I became friends through LM and the friendship has lasted over 30 years. Lou and I visited Kathy in Maryland twice. We have all kept up with each other.

Lou was a beautiful person inside and out. She would do anything to help a person. She was so caring and giving of herself. She was fun and loved to have a good time. I only have the memories now but I will treasure them always.

My thoughts and prayers for Cindy, Mitch and the entire family.

“ Lou was a very special lady, for her family and all those fortunate enough to call her friend. I am one of those lucky friends for the past 30 years. I met Lou in 1980 as she began a very successful career with Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in Dallas PSD.

She was an exceptional sales person, respected by all. We maintained a close friendship all these years with me living a 1000 miles away in Maryland. She and Jodie had a couple of opportunities to visit with me on their travels to Boston. I then had the chance 3 years ago with a stop over in Dallas to have lunch with Lou and Joann another former LM employee. Lou once again made this possible using her sales skills with the security personnel to let her in to meet my plane. My friend, Janis, travelling with me said she will never forget that meeting and the time we had at lunch with Lou and Joann. The fact we almost missed our plane.

I extend my sympathy to her children, Cindy and Mitch, and their children along with her sisters and brother. I know how much she loved you all. She is now in Heaven to continue watching over you. When you see an especially bright star shine, know that is my friend Lou!!!

Much love to you all from a long time friend, Kathryn Adams

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Lou. We had some fun trips together during our many years of being friends. I remember one of our trips to Padre Island. We ate nutterbutter all the way there. On our Transatlantic cruise she was upset that she could not watch Fox News live...so she watched the same taped edition of Bill O'Reilly everyday. Lou will be missed so much!!!!

“ I am so very shocked and saddened by the news of the loss of our dear Lou. She was such a thoughtful, caring, classy and strong lady and I will always appreciate what a great friend she was to my parents, Tom and Marie Brown. Mom and Lou met while working at Collins Radio and they remained friends throughout the years. Lou was always there for them, especially in the difficult later years. She was forever supportive and giving, always considerate and ready to serve. I am so thankful that I had the opportunity to know her. She was a grand lady and will always be remembered. I am so very sorry for your loss. May your wonderful memories of her bring you comfort in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

“ We grew together during a three week stint with Liberty Mutual in Rockaway NY. Lou was friendly and uplifting, always encouraging us to do better. God rest her please.
