“ So sorry to hear about Mark's passing. I also swam with Mark At the Dad's Club in Houston back in the 1960s. I remember Mark as fun and energetic, with a quick wit, ready smile, and generous heart. He stood out among the "herd" of swimmers with all of these wonderful traits. Please accept my deepest condolences and know that Mark has left an indelible, positive footprint that lives on in our hearts, memories, and thoughts, ensuring that he will always be with us.

“ I did not get the news that Mark had passed away until this morning. I saw his birthday come up on Facebook and went to his page to wish him well. Now I see this and it rocks me. Mark and I were age group swimmers together and both swam on the Memorial High School team. Mark was a very intelligent guy with a wicked clever sense of humor. Last saw him at the swimmer's reunion at the Dad's Club in 2010 and interacted with him through Facebook. The planet is a less lively and humorous place without this soul among us. Peace Mark.
