“ We worked with Ron for many years and he was always professional, kind, fair, and honest. We are all saddened to lose such a solid man. We send our prayers to his family and we pray for their comfort. Our Lord is in control, even if we may not like losing folks like Ron, we trust in him that this is his wish. We are thankful for knowing him and we are also better for knowing him and I know his family is very proud of his life, even if it was cut too short. When I think of all Ron has accomplished and the many people he blessed, it makes me think that it's not how long you live but how much..... Rob Gustavsen and Co. Next Step, LLC

“ My and our sincere condolences to Ron's family. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. I have known and worked with Ron for over twenty years. He was truly one of the good guys in the construction industry. He was always honest and conducted himself with the highest degree of integrity. You always knew where Ron stood and that was on the right side of whatever issue that may arise. His humbleness and kind spirit are going to be sorely missed. Ron ran the good race and now he has claimed the prize that he lived his life for - an eternity in heaven with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Lydia and Natalie. My husband and I met Ron at Pier 101 and we became instant friends. Ron was so sweet and kind. He loved his Lydia so much. She made her dad very proud. Lydia was a hostess at Pier 101, so getting to know Ron and Lydia we really enjoyed it. I looked forward to seeing those two often at the Pier. Ron was a special friend who we enjoyed watching football games and laughter at the neighborhood Pier. He will certainly be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife and daughter for the strength of healing they will need. May God comfort you always.

Brent Fox - January 17 at 11:00 PM

“ Ron's family and friends,
We met Ron at the little yellow-house Mexican restaurant on N. Fannin Street years ago. We knew the owner who was a former DPD officer. Ron said his dad, Ronnie Harper was also an officer there. Coincidentally, my wife and I knew him very well from my days there. We will remember our times visiting the restaurant and his friendly, kind ways.

Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you today and in the future, as they have been. Many precious shared memories and the love, support, and prayers of so many lift and comfort you.

With you in thought and prayer and our sincere sympathy offered,
