“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of my dear neighbor, mentor, role model and faith-filled friend. I know she was dearly loved by her family and anyone who knew her. In the same breath I know she is in heaven with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ which brings me peace. May God's peace, grace and strength, which surpasses all understanding, be with you Gary, Jennifer, Jeff, all her precious grandchildren and her siblings.
Love,
Joan Vinson

“ I first met you about 1961, when you and Gary came to meet our new son, Byron. I was introduced to the Texas drawl you so eloquently spoke. I saw a beautiful young lady who was soon to marry my husband's best man at our wedding.

We visited you numerous times in Texas, you allowed me to make home-made noodles after a wonderful chicken dinner. You showed me how to make flat tacos--which I still make. You entertained me, and me alone, when Porter and Gary had gone for the evening--I found how truly beautiful your voice was and how professionally you played your grand piano. I met Jennifer when she was in the high chair and a few years later a darling and handsome Jeff who captured my heart with his personality. You always treated Porter and me like royalty--graciously and charmingly.

The last few years we so enjoyed traveling around the states and took a cruise around the British Isles where we ventured every venture offered. We so looked forward to our next vacation with the Hatfields.

We shared our ups and downs and always with great admiration for each family. You ARE our family--we have always looked at you and Gary as such. You are now our Angel that will continue to care lovingly for your family just as you did on earth. We celebrate your transition to your final reward with such sweet sorrow.

May God bless your family with the wonderful memories that will keep them in their hearts until we meet again.

We love and miss you, sweet lady. You are indeed one of the most beautiful and finest ladies I have ever known.
