Hey Uncle. I can't help but think about the last time we spoke. It wasn't that long ago, you called just because you wanted to tell me you loved me. You said you wanted to take more time to tell the people around you how you felt. You told me you were proud of me. Thank you. Birthdays won't be the same without you. Cindy will never forget her first experience of living with me on 8/12. You called to say happy birthday before you left for work, early in the morning back in Dallas. Well, it was 3 am here in PHX. Cindy said something like, who the hell is calling at 3 in the morning. Lol. She expected it after that. You'll always be the guy who cut my rat-tail off with a pocket knife. Lol. I love you Unc.

“ To My Love: Sr. I miss you more than words can say. I will always carry the love we shared so deeply in my heart. I still can not imagine life without you - I am surrendering my pain and heartache to God for it is too much to bear. I am forever grateful for the 42 years that we have lived, loved, and laughed together. I will forever love you, my sweetheart, I will see you soon. When God calls me home - I will come to you and we will spend eternity together and have a wonderful family reunion with our loved ones. What a glorious day that will be. Thanks be to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for eternal life. John 3:16
