“ Mrs. Walls was my neighbor for over 20 years. I have many heartfelt memories of her. She was my dear friend. Sometimes we would sit and talk for hours; about family, the weather, what she went thru during the times of the Great Depression in the 1940s, or just whatever was on our minds. The times I would go see her when she was at Rock Ridge and eat lunch or dinner with her are special memories also. She would tell the other residents “This is Ida. She is my best friend. She is only here to see me so be nice to her.” I would smile and she would put her arm around me so proudly. She was one special lady and will never be forgotten. I love you, Mrs. Walls.

“ Our family was also a neighbor to Mrs. Walls and I completely agree with Ida. She was a wonderful neighbor and always loved our children. She even said they could call her Granny. We enjoyed visiting her and Benny. The time we got to spend with her was priceless. She will always be remembered, admired, and loved.
