

William Reagan Smith

April 17, 1992 - July 11, 2021

William Reagan Smith, 29, of Quinlan, TX, died unexpectedly July 11, 2021. Will was born April 17, 1992, to Lori Brock (mother) and her husband Mark Brock of Chesterfield, IN, Keith Smith (father) and Mary Smith (stepmother) of Rockwall, TX. He is survived by his siblings: Morgan Smith, Daniel Black, Emily Smith, and Harrison Burrell; nephews: Gavin Davis, Eli Askins, and Wyatt Black; niece: Shauni Black; grandparents: Will and Lola Smith of Lone Oak, TX, Wanda Green of Muncie, IN, and Joel and Diane Burrell; stepfather: Donald Burrell; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his grandfather: Joe Green; and his aunt: June Skeen.

Even as a young child, Will was dead set on being a cowboy. He wore his boots and cowboy hat wherever he went – even to the beach and with a broken ankle. Will enjoyed spending time with friends and family, as well as hunting and fishing. No critters were safe around him (except doves; he never could seem to hit them).

Will loved to spend all his time among family and friends. He was the life of the party, and everyone enjoyed being around him. His smile and laugh were contagious, and made everyone around him laugh out loud before he even said a word. He was always ready to share a drink and his time. No matter the situation, Will had a joke that could lighten the mood. He was affectionate and never shied away from letting those around him know that he loved them. He made lifelong friends wherever he went.

To those who knew him, Will was loving, loyal, and hardworking. Even during his time at Rockwall High School, Will started his own lawn care company with his friend, Joe. He was a passionate entrepreneur and outdoor enthusiast. His drive and tenacity allowed him to be a business owner and homeowner by the age of 24. Needless to say, there was never a job he was above doing and he was always a source of positivity. Will's family and friends are deeply saddened by his loss and will miss him more than words can say.

Memorial services will be held 4:00pm Friday, July 16, 2021, at Rest Haven Funeral Home in Royse City, TX. A gathering of family and friends will take place at the funeral home, prior to the service, beginning at 3:00pm. After the service, the family invites you to gather with them for dinner and fellowship at Harry Myers Park Community Center, 815 E Washington St, Rockwall, TX 75087. The service will be a celebration of Will's life, and the family looks forward to hearing stories and memories from his friends and family.

“ To the Brock and Smith families,
We are the in-laws of cousin, Michelle Green. We got to know Will on a trip that Texas cowboy took to the snowy mountains of Virginia. Our family stayed in a cabin and spent the weekend tubing, skiing, and playing board games. Being with Will made the weekend - he was such a delight, so kind, respectful, and funny. He had us in stitches every evening over beers and games around the table and rarely took off those beloved boots and cowboy hat. We will miss him dearly! Our regards and prayers go out to the family.

Sincerely,

Lindsey and Cody Engle Matt, Stephanie, Gordon and Ashlee Robbins
